

FOCO ONE 1200 SLIM

BIO-30-109

Foco One 1200 Slim is a stylish and space-saving built-in bioethanol fireplace, designed for in-wall installation where flames are visible only from the front. With a depth of just 20 cm, it is ideal for narrow partition walls. The included manual Superior 1000 burner has a 5-litre capacity, providing up to 6 hours of burn time. Made from 4 mm powder-coated stainless steel, the Foco One 1200 Slim comes with tempered glass for enhanced safety and flame stability. Easy to install with no chimney or flue required.
