

FOCO FREE 1200

BIO-30-127

Foco Free 1200 is a versatile 4-sided bioethanol fireplace, ideal for DIY projects. This fireplace includes a base frame, safety glass, and a choice of burner (choose between manual or automatic), allowing for great flexibility in design and installation. With a flame length of up to 80 cm and adjustable flame levels, Foco Free offers an impressive visual effect and a sleek, timeless design. The safety glass shields the flames, while the installation is straightforward and requires no special certification.
