

FOCO ONE 1800

BIO-30-150

Foco One 1800 is a stunning 180 cm wide built-in bioethanol fireplace designed to create a striking focal point in modern interiors. Its 1-sided design makes it ideal for wall installations, especially under a TV or as part of a media wall. Choose between a manual dual-burner setup for a classic experience or automatic burners with remote control for added convenience. The fireplace is crafted from 4 mm powder-coated stainless steel in a sleek black finish, while tempered glass ensures a stable and protected flame experience.
