

LAMBETH TABLETOP BIOETHANOL FIREPLACE - STEEL

BIO-20-340

The ScandiFlames Lambeth tabletop bioethanol fireplace in steel is a small and stylish rectangular fireplace that can be used both indoors and outdoors. It is lightweight and easy to move when extinguished. With safety glass on the sides, it provides maximum visibility of the flames. It has a burn time of up to 2.5 hours per filling and requires no electricity. Bioethanol fireplaces produce no smoke or soot, making them easy to maintain and clean.
